

Budapest, March 2009

To Whom It May Concern

Ildikó Szabó is a fantastic cellist and musician, with an extraordinary technique, a brilliant intellect, a creative and imaginative musical mind.

Ildikó's cloudless joy of performing and her enigmatic ability to communicate with the audience assure us that the classical music works will be in proper hands.

Yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Tamás Vásáry'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style. The first name 'Tamás' is written with a long horizontal stroke extending to the left, and the last name 'Vásáry' is written with a large, sweeping 'V' and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Tamás Vásáry

Pianist, Conductor

Awarded by Kossuth Prize,

Lifetime Honorary Chief Musical Director of the

Hungarian Radio Symphony Orchestra